

DEBS AND ASSISTANTS JAILED

Unable to Secure Bondsmen for Bail in the Sum of $3,000.

PRELIMINARY HEARING IN U. S. COURT

The Information Presented by the Government Conclusive and the Attachments for Contempt Issued.

CHICAGO, ILL., July 17.—The reports that additional proceedings were likely to be taken by the Federal authorities against President Debs and his assistant officers of the American Railway Union...

As soon as a few minor cases had been argued, the attorney general, Mr. Debs, announced the presence of Mr. Debs, and inquired whether the hearing was to go on today.

Special Counsel Walker then opened the proceedings proper with a brief statement. He said that he was desirous of presenting to the court an information against certain people on behalf of the United States Government...

The lengthy information was then read. It sets forth the facts already stated and quoted verbatim from the report of the grand jury...

It is set forth that the facts already stated and quoted verbatim from the report of the grand jury...

The court asked the defendants if they were represented by counsel, and Mr. Debs responded. He said that Debs was in court voluntarily, although it was understood that he was not.

President Debs listened with close attention. The reading of the information continued over the afternoon...

The court asked the defendants if they were represented by counsel, and Mr. Debs responded. He said that Debs was in court voluntarily...

Mr. Walker responded that the Government did not propose to protect railroads and property except within the lines indicated.

When the court met at 2 o'clock Mr. Debs, Mr. Kellher, and Rogers were present, but President Debs was absent.

By Attorney Erwin exploded a bomb by stating that if the defendants were compelled to give bail on the charge of contempt they would go to jail...

At 3:15 P. M., after a conference with the attorneys, Debs announced for himself and the three other defendants that they would not give bail...

At 3:15 P. M., after a conference with the attorneys, Debs announced for himself and the three other defendants that they would not give bail...

At 3:15 P. M., after a conference with the attorneys, Debs announced for himself and the three other defendants that they would not give bail...

THAT RUSSIAN THISTLE.

A MILLION DOLLARS VOTED FOR ITS EXTERMINATION.

An Amendment Aimed at Corporations Included in the Interstate Commerce Act.—The House.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Senate passed the Senate bill to amend the interstate commerce act of February 8, 1887, it adds to Section 19, of that act, these clauses:

"Whenever any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act is a corporation, such corporation may be prosecuted as a misdemeanor under any of the foregoing provisions of this section, in any case in which it is subject for each offense to a fine not exceeding $5,000.

"Whenever an indictment shall be found under any of the provisions of this section against a corporation, the service of any writ or other process thereon, or for the prosecution thereof, shall be deemed to be the service of such writ or process to the president, and to the secretary or other officer of such corporation, and to the district wherein such indictment may be found.

It also repeals so much of Section 19 of the act as provides for the punishment by imprisonment.

A MILLION FOR THE RUSSIAN THISTLE. The consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill was resumed and Mr. Hays moved to amend the bill to include an appropriation of a million dollars for the destruction of the Russian thistle.

Mr. Hays moved to amend the bill to include an appropriation of a million dollars for the destruction of the Russian thistle.

Mr. Hays moved to amend the bill to include an appropriation of a million dollars for the destruction of the Russian thistle.

Mr. Hays moved to amend the bill to include an appropriation of a million dollars for the destruction of the Russian thistle.

Mr. Hays moved to amend the bill to include an appropriation of a million dollars for the destruction of the Russian thistle.

Mr. Hays moved to amend the bill to include an appropriation of a million dollars for the destruction of the Russian thistle.

Mr. Hays moved to amend the bill to include an appropriation of a million dollars for the destruction of the Russian thistle.

Mr. Hays moved to amend the bill to include an appropriation of a million dollars for the destruction of the Russian thistle.

Mr. Hays moved to amend the bill to include an appropriation of a million dollars for the destruction of the Russian thistle.

Mr. Hays moved to amend the bill to include an appropriation of a million dollars for the destruction of the Russian thistle.

Mr. Hays moved to amend the bill to include an appropriation of a million dollars for the destruction of the Russian thistle.

OUR NEW QUEEN.

The Minneapolis Made a Speed of 23-073 Knots Per Hour.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The completion of the official data taken on the trial trip of the cruiser Minneapolis shows her to be not only the fastest ship in the American navy, but in the world.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

VIGILANT FOUND WIND

AND BRASILEY DEFEATED THE BRITANNIA FOR COMMODORE'S CUP.

A Strong Westerly Wind Enabled the Yankee Boat to Sail Away from the English Yacht when a Mishap Occurred.

BANGOR, IRELAND, July 17.—The Vigilant acquitted herself gloriously today in her second race over the Royal Ulster Yacht Club course of twelve turns for the Rear Commodore's cup.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

OUR NEW QUEEN.

The Minneapolis Made a Speed of 23-073 Knots Per Hour.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The completion of the official data taken on the trial trip of the cruiser Minneapolis shows her to be not only the fastest ship in the American navy, but in the world.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

BACKED BY CLEVELAND.

HE IS WITH THE HOUSE IN THE TARIFF CONTROVERSY.

A Full Meeting of the Conference of the Two Houses Hold a Brief Session—No Chance of an Agreement.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The full conference committee on the tariff bill, including the Republican conferees, met at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the room of the Committee on Finance.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

It is also said that the House conferees were standing out because the President is behind them and is insisting that the House bill, and not that of the Senate, shall become the law of the land.

OUR NEW QUEEN.

The Minneapolis Made a Speed of 23-073 Knots Per Hour.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The completion of the official data taken on the trial trip of the cruiser Minneapolis shows her to be not only the fastest ship in the American navy, but in the world.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.

There was a strong westerly wind, and the yacht was blown back home. The lead of the Yankee yacht was then about 100 miles, and the British yacht held steady all day.